English Language: Paper 1

Reading – 4 questions based on an extract from a novel.

Question 1: Write down 4 things about the character/setting/weather.

I must find 4 quotations and write them down.

Question 2: How does the writer use language to convey/create the impression of a character, setting or atmosphere?

I must identify at least 5 quotations and use the following framework.

The atmosphere is shown through '………………………….' This shows that ………………………. Another powerful quotation is '………………………………….' This shows that…………………………………….. Interestingly, the writer also states '……………………………….' This demonstrates that ………………

Question 3: How does the writer structure the text to interest you as a reader?

I must comment on the structure of each paragraph, for example, character, introduces a new character, setting, atmosphere, flashback, tension, unanswered questions.

I must also comment on how the structure interests the reader, for example, builds a picture in the reader's mind, excites, concerns reader, ask questions, gives more information, builds a relationship with the reader.

Question 4: A student having read this section of the story states 'It reminds me of a ghost story.' How far do you agree or disagree?

I must make it clear if I agree or disagree and identify a wide range of quotations. I must also explain quotations clearly.

Writing – Answer 1 question. Write a story or describe a photograph.

I must use the following:
- Descriptive language
- Simile, alliteration, repetition, personification.

English Language: Paper 2

Reading – 4 questions based on 2 non-fiction texts.

Question 1 – Read lines 1-16. Identify 4 statements that are true.

Question 2 – Summarise the different reasons why people went to shopping centres in the 20th Century and why they visited the Sunday morning market in the 19th Century.

I must only identify quotations that are relevant. Write about Source A first, then comment on any similarities or differences when writing about Source B. (I must not write about language)

Key words

In comparison, Likewise, In contrast

Question 3 – How does the writer use language to bring the market to life?

I must identify at least 5 relevant quotations and explain them carefully. Use the writing frame found on paper 1: question 2.

Question 4 – Compare the writer's attitudes towards the places they visited. Compare the methods they use.

I must comment on the following:

Attitude – positive, negative, impartial

Purpose – describe, persuade, argue, inform.

Tone – humorous, happy, sad, exciting, serious, angry, descriptive

Language – descriptive, verbs, adjectives, repetition, alliteration, rhetorical questions, command, senses,

Writing – There will be just 1 question, asking you to give your point of view on a topic.

I must write a speech or an article arguing for or against a topic.

I must use the following techniques:

Emotive language	Repetition
Alliteration	Rhetorical question
Command	